My friends were victims of neglect

Ercan Demirci, who survived the disaster on the fishing ship, said, "There is great negligence here. Holds in heavy-tonnage ships need to be ventilated frequently. Death came in plain sight."

The fishermen who lost their lives in the methane gas disaster that occurred on February 15 while the Eminoğulları-4 boat belonging to Rumeli Feneri fishermen was off the coast of Sochi and Abbazya in the Black Sea region of Russia in Sarıyer, Istanbul, were sent on their final journey. The body of Caner Gürkan (50) was brought to the village of Rumeli Feneri yesterday.

Caner Gürkan's brother Ramazan Gürkan said, "Since they kept the anchovies in the hold, they formed methane gas in 15 days." The bodies of Cengiz Demirci (27) and Emrah Bakırcı (24) were laid to rest in the Terme district of Samsun. Ercan Demirci (26), who was taken out of the hold of the same ship unconscious and narrowly escaped death at the last moment, had difficulty standing during the funeral of his friends who came to save him and lost their lives.

"THERE IS GREAT NEGLIGENCE"

Demirci said, "We had been hunting there for 3 months. On the evening of the incident, the captain asked me to clean the hold. They tied a rope to our waist and lowered us into the hold. After a while, I passed out. When they couldn't hear from me, 3 of my friends, one my uncle's son and the other my brother-in-law, went down to look after me. When they saw me unconscious, they tied a rope to my waist and pulled me up. The 3 people who went down to save me also passed out immediately and lost their lives before they could be pulled up. There is great negligence here. Although holds on heavy ships should be ventilated frequently, they were not. Death came in plain sight." On the other hand, it was reported that two people were taken into custody in connection with the incident.

Deniz Baykal 's daughter criticizes CHP: We have escaped from the edge of danger

Aslı Baykal , the daughter of the late Deniz Baykal , former Republican People's Party (CHP) Chairman , harshly criticized CHP executives on her social media account. Baykal said in a statement on her social media account, "The main opposition party will go door to door and complain about Turkey to the world. Is there another example of this?"

Aslı Baykal, the daughter of the late CHP Chairman Deniz Baykal , harshly criticized CHP Chairman Özgür Özel's complaint against the party that he gave to a foreign news agency.

"WHAT WILL THEY DO IF THEY GET THE POWER"

Baykal used the following statements on his social media account:

"Türkiye gerçek gündeminde, dünyada söz sahibi ülke olma yolunda hızla ilerlerken ana muhalefet, kapı kapı gezip dünyaya şikayet edecekmiş Türkiye'yi. Bunun bir örneği daha var mı acaba? 'Hırsızlığımızı yakalayıp ceza verdiler' diye mi şikayet edecek? 'Diploma usulsüzmüş, kabul etmediler siz söyleyin kabul etsinler' mi diyecek? Allah'tan genel değil yerel seçimde geldiler de yaşatacaklarını millet gördü, canını kurtarmaya çalışıyor.
