Earlier on the afternoon of June 23, Mr. TVL was standing in front of the company yard when a man with a weapon stabbed him repeatedly. After turning around, struggling and taking the knife from the suspect, Mr. L. discovered that the person who attacked him was TVC, the company's warehouse keeper.

Some company employees ran out to take Mr. L. to the emergency room. Taking advantage of this moment, C. quickly ran away. A moment later, people in the company discovered Ms. LTA (32 years old), a janitor of the company, stabbed, lying in a rented room behind the factory. The two victims were then taken to the La Gi town hospital for emergency treatment, but Ms. A. died, while Mr. L. had his wounds bandaged.

After examining the scene and performing an autopsy, the authorities deployed forces to arrest the suspect and discovered the incident this afternoon.
