The suspect caused the death of a female cleaning staff member and injured a male colleague at a fishmeal processing company, then fled the scene. Authorities later found the suspect dead in a melaleuca grove about 300 meters from the scene...

After a three-day search for the suspect in the murder case that left one dead and one injured at a fishmeal processing company in La Gi town, Binh Thuan province, at approximately 3 PM on June 26th, authorities discovered a man who had died by hanging, a position consistent with the suspect in the case.

Man found dead in melaleuca forest.

Authorities initially believe this person resembles Thong Van Cuong (55 years old, residing in Ham Tan district), the suspect in the murder at the fishmeal processing company in La Gi town. The body was found in a mangrove forest about 300 meters from the company.

Earlier on the afternoon of June 23rd, Thong Van Cuong (55 years old, residing in Tan Thang, Ham Tan, Binh Thuan) saw Thai Van Liem, the manager of Kim Thanh Fish Meal Joint Stock Company, located in Binh An 1 village, Tan Binh commune, La Gi town, standing outside the gate. Cuong then stabbed Liem from behind with a knife. During the struggle, people in the company realized what was happening and ran out to intervene. Seeing this, Cuong fled the scene.

Suspecting something was wrong, the workers rushed to check the dormitory and discovered that Ms. Luong Thi Anh (32 years old, from Nghe An province) had also been stabbed and was in critical condition. Both victims were quickly taken to the hospital in
