Vaibhav New Godavari representative Shyam from Ainaivilli: The management of Choice Prawn Company has taken steps to ensure that the workers are not getting the wages due to the contractor's mistake in the presence of the police. It was announced that an arrangement has been made to pay all the workers who have not received their wages on Wednesday. If we go into the details... Workers work in Choice Prawn Company of Kerala State in Pothukurru village of Ainaivilli Mandal. However, some complained to Konaseema District Collector that they were not being paid their wages. With this, the authorities entered the field. However, in the investigation police have come to know that the management of Choice Company has paying the wages to the contractors related to the laborers every month properly and they are not getting the wages due to the mistake of the contractor. To this end, the management, who called the contractor through the company's HR, held discussions with the workers. The contractor agreed to the payment of wages in the negotiations conducted under the supervision of SI Suresh Babu of Ainaivilli. With this, in the presence of SI Sureshbabu, wages were paid to the workers in the police station. The management of the company said that measures will be taken to prevent such mistakes from happening in the future.
